

UCL CHANGEMAKERS: STUDENTS AS DRIVERS OF CHANGE

Maisie Harrison, Manuela Irarrázabal, Sandra Lusk & Saul Wodak

SESSION AIM

To outline the four ways in which students can engage with UCL ChangeMakers to benefit the learning experience of the UCL community; and to share our experiences with you.

OPPORTUNITIES FOR STUDENTS

- UCL ChangeMakers - Student Fellow
- Student Quality Reviewer
 - ASER intensive
 - Students Reviewers of teaching
- UCL ChangeMakers Project – Lead Student; Supporting Student
- UCL ChangeMakers Cup of Coffee - Participant

UCL CHANGEMAKERS STUDENT FELLOWS

- Why include students as collaborators in a team?

STUDENT QUALITY REVIEWER

- ASER Intensive

- Help departments to improve their communication with students and create a project to solve an issue they have.

- Students Reviewers of Teaching

- Work in collaboration with a member of staff to reflect upon their teaching practices.

UCL CHANGEMAKERS STUDENT PROJECTS

What Is It?

- turn student/staff ideas into feasible projects
- offer support throughout the project including training for students
- help teams embed and make lasting change.

What's In It For Me?

- Project funding of up to £1000
- Students receive up to £150 in stipends
- Higher Education Achievement Record (HEAR).
- That warm fuzzy feeling of making a positive change
