Should students provide evidence?

Should students need to provide evidence, as sometimes this could be challenging in such a stressful time?

Should an extenuating circumstance request be taken on trust value and any abuse of this trust be considered as a discipline matter?

What might be the challenges if evidence isn't required?

Would you feel this is still fair?
