

NUS Conference Delegate

Your Role

Student's Union UCL is affiliated to the National Union of Students (NUS), and will send a delegation of 9 students to its next National Conference in 2020. The NUS provides an effective and highly prominent political voice for students across the entire United Kingdom. As an NUS delegate, you represent the views of our Union at the NUS National Conference, the annual policy making body of the national union. The conference takes place each spring, runs for three days with almost 1400 students attending and passes policy that sets the priorities of the NUS for the coming year.

Your Responsibility

As an NUS delegate, you will represent the values, needs and political priorities of students at UCL have a real and meaningful say in the student movement not just at UCL, but at a national level. With training and support from Union staff, you will:

- Attend NUS Conference in March/April 2020 (expenses covered by the Union)
- Be invited to attend Union Executive and Policy Zone meetings in order to keep up to discuss and debate Union Policy
- Submit a report to Union Executive after the conference, including a record of how you voted on all motions

Your Eligibility

All students. 9 delegates will be elected.

Time Required For Role

- Attend the 3-day conference in Liverpool from 31 March – 2 April
- Any additional time you want to put in to research around NUS policy and campaigns
