

The constitution of the Students' Union UCL Economics and Finance Society (EFS)

1. Name

1.1. The name of the society shall be the University College London Union (UCL) Economics and Finance Society.

1.2. The society shall be affiliated to UCL Union.

2. Statement of Intent

2.1. The constitution, regulations, management and conduct of the society shall abide by all UCL Union Policy, and shall be bound by the UCL Union Constitution and Standing Orders, the Club and Society Regulations and the Club and Society Procedures and Guidance.

2.2. The society stresses that it abides by the UCL Union Equal Opportunities Policy, and that society regulations pertaining to membership of the society or election to management of the society shall not contravene this policy.

2.3. The Club and Society Regulations can be found at the following website:
www.uclu.org/clubs-societies

3. The Society Committee

3.1. President

3.1.1. The President's primary role is laid out in section 5.7 of the Club and Society Regulations.

3.2. Treasurer

3.2.1. The Treasurer's primary role is laid out in section 5.8 of the Club and Society Regulations.

3.2.2. Set the society's annual budget.

3.3. Additional committee members

3.3.1. Client Relations VP: Works closely with the President to ensure that Society attracts the most prestigious sponsors from across the financial spectrum. The Client Relations VP will need to draw up proposals, pitch to potential sponsors and manage the relationships throughout the year: this includes organising all relevant corporate events.

3.3.2. Finance VP: Responsible for the organisation of Investment Banking events as well as providing the Client Relations VP with help with sponsorship deals. This role would also involve helping and developing alternative investment events. This role will involve coordinating a team of finance executives. Furthermore, the team will be responsible for the organisation of the UIBS competition.

3.3.3. Economics VP: Responsible for the organisation of economics and academic events. Also this person is the key contact for the Economics department and will encourage mutual involvement between the department and the society. Again the Economics VP will be heading up a small team of Economics executives and will also take on the roles as the society's welfare and outreach officer.

3.3.4. Business VP: Responsible for a smaller team concentrating on the organisation of events relating to consultancy and other financial services. As well as this, the Business VP would be responsible for competitions the society may hold and any entrepreneurial related events.

3.3.5. Marketing VP: Responsible for all the marketing of the society and managing the marketing team. The position will include being responsible for the weekly newsletter, freshers stand, developing the membership base, advertising all events around campus.

3.3.6. Socials VP: Responsible for organising and running EFS social events, including Fresher events and other events not covered by other Division heads. Works closely with the rest of the committee to provide top level social events for the society members to socialise beyond EFS' core career and academic events. The Socials VP will head a team of Social executives.

3.3.7. Bloomsbury Capital VP: Chairman of the Bloomsbury Capital Investment Fund (sub-division of EFS). Responsible to the EFS President and Treasurer for all aspects of the fund's management (details of this can be found in the Bloomsbury Capital Charter). Of the leadership committee, this is the only position not elected at the EFS AGM. The VP will be elected at a separate AGM by the Bloomsbury Capital Membership.

3.4. Management of the society shall be vested in the Society Leadership Committee (President, Treasurer and aforementioned VPs) which shall endeavour to meet once a week during term time (excluding college reading weeks) to organise and evaluate the Society's activities.

3.5. The Committee members will perform the roles as described in section 5 of the UCL Union Club and Society Regulations document.

3.6. Committee members are elected to represent the interests and well-being of Society members and are able to be held to account. If Society members are not satisfied by the performance of their representative officers they may call for a motion of no-confidence in line with section 5.6 of the Club and Society Regulations.

4. Terms, Aims and Objectives

4.1. The society shall hold the following as its aims and objectives.

4.2. The society shall strive to fulfil these aims and objectives in the course of the academic year as its commitment to its membership.

4.3. The core activities of the society shall be:

4.3.1. Organise events designed to increase members' knowledge of and exposure to a range of careers in Finance.

4.3.2. Organise a range of Economics related event with a variety of prestigious speakers.

4.3.3. Provide opportunities for members to socialise and meet with likeminded people.

4.3.4. Participate in the Organisation of UIBS.

4.4. In addition, the society shall also strive to organise other activities for its members where possible:

4.4.1. Provide skills sessions and CV workshops.

4.4.2. Raise awareness of relevant off campus events and internship opportunities.

4.4.3. Host at least one charity fund raising event per year.

5. This constitution shall be binding on the society officers and shall only be altered by consent of two-thirds majority of the full members present at a society general meeting. Activities Board and Governance Committee shall approve any such alterations.

6. This constitution has been approved and accepted as the Constitution for the University College London Union Economics and Finance Society. By signing this document the President and Treasurer have declared that they have read and abide by the Clubs and Societies Regulations.

7. All matters pertaining to Bloomsbury Capital and its operations and governance can be found in the Bloomsbury Capital Charter, acknowledged and accepted by the EFS as an extension to this constitution.
