3. Committee

- 3.1. President
 - 3.1.1. The Presidents' primary role is laid out in section 5.7 of the Club and Society Regulations.
- 3.2. Treasurer
 - 3.2.1. The treasurer's primary role is laid out in section 5.8 of the Club and Society Regulations.
- 3.3. Welfare Officer
 - 3.3.1. The Welfare Officers' primary role is laid out in section 5.9 of the Club and Society Regulations.
- 3.4. Additional Committee Members

3.4.1. Client Relations Vice President

3.4.1.1. Client relations are an integral part of society and will help expand it in terms of connections and better events. This division aims to secure sponsorship on behalf of the society, ensuring that the society has enough cash flow to continuously benefit UCL students.

3.4.2. Marketing Vice President

3.4.2.1. The main aim will be to increase the awareness of the society's events and initiatives. This person will be in charge of running all of our social media accounts (e.g. Facebook, Instagram) and will be heavily involved in the recruitment of new members. This means that they should be able to motivate and inspire others to join Fintech Society as executives or active members.

3.4.3. Outreach Vice President

3.4.3.1. The Outreach team connects and interacts with businesses and leaders in the fintech industry by scouting and contacting CEOs and marketing heads of startups and financial/tech companies. All the relationships made will be leveraged to host workshops/events.

3.4.4. Events Vice President

3.4.4.1. The Event Team will be hosting a range of events starting next term. These will include speaker events from banks and start-ups, social events for members to build relationships, and competitions, giving students a better understanding of the FinTech sector.

3.4.5. Research Vice President

3.4.5.1. The Research team leads and manages the 'UCL Finance & Technology Review' (FTR), a flagship online publication covering ideas and news related to FinTech, Finance, Big Data, Machine Learning, ESG, and Entrepreneurship. The division will recruit correspondents to share wider FinTech-related knowledge with the audience.

3.4.6. Quant Ventures Vice President

3.4.6.1. The Quant Ventures team is responsible for hosting monthly coding workshops that will allow students to develop an understanding of Python and be able to code their own trading algorithms. On top of that, trading workshops will also be held to educate members' knowledge towards quantitative trading.

- 3.5. Management of the club/society shall be vested in the club/society committee which will endeavour to meet regularly during term time (excluding UCL reading weeks) to organise and evaluate club/society activities.
- 3.6. The committee members shall perform the roles as described in section 5 of the Students' Union UCL Club and Society Regulations.
- 3.7. Committee members are elected to represent the interests and well-being of club/society members and are accountable to their members. If club/society members are not satisfied by the performance of their representative officers, they may call for a motion of no-confidence in line with the Students' Union UCL Club and Society Regulations.

4. Terms, Aims and Objectives

- 4.1. The club/society shall hold the following as its aims and objectives.
- 4.2. The club/society shall strive to fulfil these aims and objectives in the course of the academic year as its commitment to its membership.
- 4.3. The core activities of the club/society shall be:
 - 4.3.1. Career evenings: inviting big corporations to educate students about their career paths.
 - 4.3.2. Meeting up with FinTech companies and startups to demonstrate the potential opportunities hidden behind Fintech industry.
 - 4.3.3. Coding/Trading workshops: create an encouraging environment for members to learn technology knowledge in depth.
 - 4.3.4. Hosting a podcast for Fintech professionals to share insights and inspire members.
- 4.4. In addition, the club/society shall also strive to organise other activities for its members where possible:
- 4.5. This constitution shall be binding on the club/society officers and shall only be altered by consent of two-thirds majority of the full members present at a club/society general meeting. The Activities Executive shall approve any such alterations.
- 4.6. This constitution has been approved and accepted as the Constitution for the Students' Union UCL Fintech Society. By signing this document, the President and Treasurer have declared that they have read and abide by the Students' Union UCL Club and Society Regulations.
