4. Terms, Aims and Objectives

- 4.1. The club/society shall hold the following as its aims and objectives.
- 4.2. The club/society shall strive to fulfil these aims and objectives in the course of the academic year as its commitment to its membership.
- 4.3. The core activities of the club/society shall be:
 - 4.3.1. Cultural Immersion Through Tea: This series of events will explore different tea cultures from around the world, allowing members to immerse themselves in the rich heritage and traditions associated with tea-drinking practices. Each event will focus on a specific tea culture, such as Chinese Tea Culture (Wei Lu Zhu Cha), English Tea Culture (High Tea), Turkish Tea Culture (Çay Culture), and more.

- 4.4. In addition, the club/society shall also strive to organise other activities for its members where possible:
- 4.4.1. Tea and MBTI (Myers-Briggs Type Indicator) Socials: These social events will explore the intersection of personality psychology and tea preferences, allowing members to discover how their MBTI types influence their tea choices and brewing rituals.
 - 4.4.2. Teatime Study: This social event will provide members with stress-relief activities and information about the health benefits of tea during exam seasons. Members will have the opportunity to relax and unwind with tea while learning about its potential effects on mental and physical well-being. Meanwhile, We aim to offer a serene environment where participants indulge in focused self-study sessions accompanied by the soothing ritual of tea-drinking.
 - 4.4.3. Tea Field Trip: Embark on a guided excursion to local tea houses and cultural centres, where participants will immerse themselves in the diverse world of tea cultures. Led by knowledgeable guides, this hands-on experience offers insights into traditional tea-making techniques, cultural rituals, and the significance of tea in different societies.
- 4.5. This constitution shall be binding on the club/society officers and shall only be altered by consent of two-thirds majority of the full members present at a club/society general meeting. The Activities Executive shall approve any such alterations.
- 4.6. This constitution has been approved and accepted as the Constitution for the Students' Union UCL Tea Society. By signing this document, the President and Treasurer have declared that they have read and abide by the Students' Union UCL Club and Society Regulations.
