

ACC support for undergraduate students

We're here to support you with your academic communication throughout your studies, to help you communicate more effectively in your discipline.

Access our support on the main ACC Moodle. From here, you can also access your ACC faculty Moodle.

If you are an IOE student, your support is via the IOE Academic Writing Centre.

Any queries, email: acc@ucl.ac.uk

Webinars cover key strategies, resources, and include an opportunity for Q&A on a range of topics related to academic reading, writing, and presentations. For the webinar schedule and to register, go to the main ACC Moodle.

Writing retreats provide a supportive, motivating environment to work on your own writing. There is no need to book; for joining information, go to the main ACC Moodle.

Writing process workshops give you strategies for writing and opportunities for practice. To register, go to the main ACC Moodle.

Reading and note-taking courses support you in becoming a more critical and effective academic reader. To register, go to the main ACC Moodle.

Grammar for academic writing courses for students with English as an additional language enable you to improve your grammar knowledge and usage and help you to write more clearly. To register, go to the main ACC Moodle.

Oral communication workshops support you in developing your confidence and fluency in academic speaking. To register, go to the main ACC Moodle.

GenAI and the writing process workshops help you take a critical stance towards the use of GenAI tools, particularly for use in the writing process. To register, go to the main ACC Moodle.

One-to-one tutorials start in November. These can be used to work on, for example: the language and structure of your writing; to practice a presentation; to discuss learning strategies and transitioning into university; to help you in understanding the specific requirements and conventions of an assignment that you are working on. Booking opens in October; further details are on your ACC faculty Moodle (which you can find from the main ACC Moodle).

Asynchronous resources are available on a dedicated Moodle to support you in key areas of academic communication. Visit the ACC Resources Moodle

If you are a first year Access UCL student, you can also find us on Instagram: @UCLAccess and come to our student drop-in hours (Monday 10-11am / Wednesday 2-3pm). Find more information on our ACCess Moodle.
