

UCL 5km Run Terms & Conditions

By entering the UCL 5km Run, you understand and agree to terms and conditions stated below. If you disagree with any of the below terms, then please do not enter. If you are in any way unsure on any aspect of the content below, please contact us at su.projectactive@ucl.ac.uk. Students' Union UCL reserves the right to change these Terms and Conditions at any time by posting changes online. You can only enter the UCL 5km Run if you are a current UCL Staff member, current UCL student or if you have a current Visiting & Associate Membership.

The organisers hold the rights to amend/cancel any event at late notice. This includes any aspect of the event such as race time, date or venue. In the event of a cancellation that is beyond the control of the organisers, such as adverse weather conditions and communicable diseases, attempts will be made to reschedule the event and entries will be automatically transferred. Where an event cannot be rescheduled committed contractors will be paid and remaining funds will be offered as partial refunds or donated to charity. Where an event is not fully cancelled or rescheduled and the participant chooses not to race, they will not be entitled to a refund.

Organisers hold the right to exclude participants from any event who are deemed to be acting inappropriately or causing health and safety concerns for themselves or others without refund. All participants agree to abide by the rules of the race set by the race directors, organisers (including medical staff and event day stewards).

All entrants understand that they bear all the risks associated with the stress and strains of the event from a physical perspective. All participants agree that they are fit and healthy enough to compete in the event and will not hold the event organisers responsible for health failures that arise during/following the event. Running is a physically active sport. You should always seek advice from your GP before taking up a strenuous physical pursuit such as this. Additionally, entrants will not hold the organisers responsible for the loss or damage of any personal equipment left without care.

UCL Students' Union and its volunteers do not accept responsibility for injury, loss and damage sustained by a participant unless the above injury, loss and damage is proven to have been caused as a direct result of negligence on the part of the organisers.
