

Item for Discussion: Napping zonesOutline your idea for discussion:

I think there should be napping zones available around campus - students spend nights working, studying, and then the next day they go to university exhausted and have to wait hours in between sessions. Some of them commute and can't go back home, so they need to wait in exhaustion and despair.