

Gingerbread dreams: What happened on the way to UCL?

How can digital education help you at UCL?

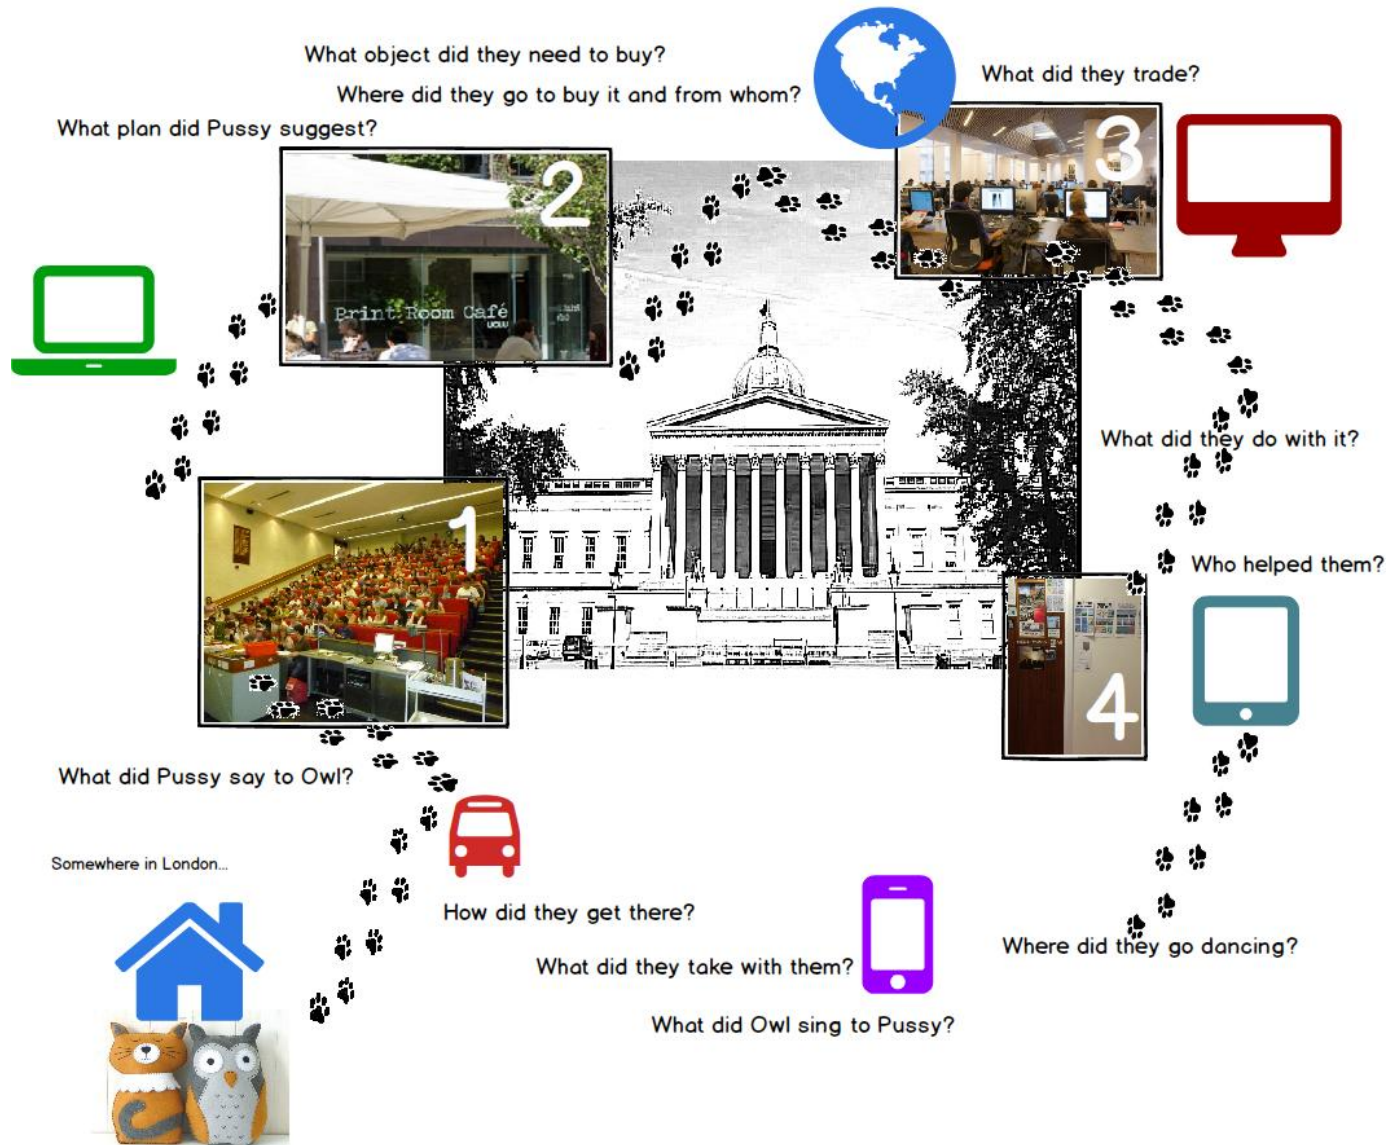

- How can novel pedagogies help?
  - Narratives and story telling
    - (Re)tell your story through a well known tale
    - Reinvent the story to highlight your experience
  - Making and creative construction
    - Make ideas concrete by creating something
    - Activate your 'design thinking'
- Infinite possibilities...

The Owl and the Pussycat

Nonsense literature – like Dr Seuss, Sukumar Ray, Amos Tutuola, Michael Rosen

Our challenge:

re-tell your journey to UCL through the Owl and the Pussycat story

The Owl and the Pussycat went to UCL...

What did we learn from the Owl and the Pussycat?

What are your digital dreams? Put them in the box and give them to us...

...and in return we will supply your digital prescription at our stall over lunch and...

...give you a voucher to help you on your way!

Tell us if you want iOS or Android

Write here

Who am I?

Or here

Is this you?

WIFI THAT WORKS

an app that....

I wish I could...

...digitally

Put things inside

my technological hopes and fears . . .
