The Companies Act 2006

Company Limited by Guarantee and not having a Share Capital

Articles of Association of UCLU

BACKGROUND

- A. UCLU (the “Union”) is a students’ union within the meaning of the Education Act 1994. The Union is a democratic institution which is devoted to the educational interests and welfare of its Members.
- B. The Union will seek at all times to:
- (i) ensure that the diversity of its Membership is recognised and that equal access is available to all Members of whatever origin or orientation;
 - (ii) pursue its aims and objectives independent of any political party or religious group;
 - (iii) pursue equal opportunities by taking positive action within the law to facilitate participation of groups discriminated against by society;
 - (iv) foster and encourage the freedom of speech, expression, assembly and association amongst its Members; and
 - (v) fulfil its objects in a socially and environmentally responsible manner.
- C. These Articles have been structured to give the Board of Trustees reasonable authority to manage the affairs of the Union in a professional manner. The Members enjoy the right, which must be exercised in accordance with charity law, to elect a proportion of the Trustees and to dismiss all of the Trustees. The Board of Trustees will give the utmost consideration to the views of Members.
- D. Under the Education Act 1994, UCL has a statutory duty to ensure that the Union operates in a fair and democratic manner and is held to proper account for its finances. The Union therefore works alongside UCL in ensuring that the affairs of the Union are properly conducted and that the educational and welfare needs of the Union’s Members are met.

THE HISTORY OF UCLU

- E. The Union is the incorporated successor of the unincorporated association known as “University College London Union” (“the Unincorporated Union”).
- F. The Unincorporated Union is a federation of two unions, the Men’s Union Society (“the Men’s Union”) and the Women’s Union Society (“the Women’s Union”).
- G. The Men’s Union was formed in 1893 and the Women’s Union was formed in 1897. In 1954, the Men’s Union and the Women’s Union entered into a Federation Agreement in order to put in place joint administration and control of the two unions whilst still retaining them in existence as two separate unions. Since 1954, the Men’s Union and the Women's Union have been run in practice as one union, namely the Unincorporated Union.

- H. The constitution of the Unincorporated Union acknowledges the continued existence of the Men's Union and the Women's Union and its recitals explain that the constitution relates only to the joint functions of the two unions. No active steps have been taken to dissolve the Men's Union, the Women's Union or the Unincorporated Union.
- I. The Men's Union, the Women's Union and the Unincorporated Union now remain in existence as dormant organisations for technical legal reasons in order to preserve certain property rights in relation to the Shenley Sports Grounds, and any replacement grounds, which are held on trust by University College London. It is intended that University College London will become the sole trustee of the Men's Union, the Women's Union and the Unincorporated Union.

26.1.1 in advance of the Company General Meeting where it is to be put to the vote; or

26.3 Where a poll on a resolution is demanded in advance of the Company General Meeting, subject to the requirements of the Bye-Laws, the vote on that resolution may include votes cast in advance of the meeting.

26.4 A demand for a poll may be withdrawn if:

28. Errors and disputes

28.1 No objection may be raised to the qualification of any person voting at a Company General Meeting except at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is tendered, and every vote not disallowed at the meeting is valid.

28.2 Any such objection must be referred to the chair of the meeting whose decision is final.

29. Content of proxy notices

29.1 Proxies may only validly be appointed by a notice in writing (a “proxy notice”) which:

29.2 The Union may require proxy notices to be delivered in a particular form, and may specify different forms for different purposes.

29.3 Proxy notices may specify how the proxy appointed under them is to vote (or that the proxy is to abstain from voting) on one or more resolutions.

29.4 Unless a proxy notice indicates otherwise, it must be treated as:

29.4.1 allowing the person appointed under it as a proxy discretion as to how to vote on any ancillary or procedural resolutions put to the meeting; and

29.4.2 appointing that person as a proxy in relation to any adjournment of the Company General Meeting to which it relates as well as the meeting itself.

30. Amendments to resolutions

30.1.1 notice of the proposed amendment is given to the Union in writing by a person entitled to vote at the Company General Meeting at which it is to be proposed not less than 48 hours before the meeting is to take place (or such later time as the chair of the meeting may determine); and

30.1.2 the proposed amendment does not, in the reasonable opinion of the chair of the meeting, materially alter the scope of the resolution.

30.2 A Special Resolution to be proposed at a Company General Meeting may be amended by Ordinary Resolution, if:

30.2.1 the chair of the meeting proposes the amendment at the Company General Meeting at which the resolution is to be proposed; and

30.2.2 the amendment does not go beyond what is necessary to correct a grammatical or other non-substantive error in the resolution.

30.3 If the chair of the meeting, acting in good faith, wrongly decides that an amendment to a resolution is out of order, the chair's error does not invalidate the vote on that resolution.

31.1 Subject to Article 31.4, a written resolution of the Union passed in accordance with this Article 31 shall have effect as if passed by the Union in Company General Meeting.

31.5 A Members' resolution under the Companies Acts removing a Trustee or an auditor before the expiration of his or her term of office may not be passed as a written resolution.

- 31.6 A copy of the written resolution must be sent to every Member together with a statement informing the Member how to signify their agreement to the resolution and the date by which the resolution must be passed if it is not to lapse. - 31.7.1 if the document is sent to the Union in hard copy form, it is authenticated if it bears the Member's signature; and
- 31.7.2 if the document is sent to the Union by electronic means, if it is accompanied by a statement of the identity of the Member and the Union has no reason to doubt the truth of that statement.
- 31.8 A written resolution is passed when the required majority of eligible Members have signified their agreement to it.
- 31.9 A proposed written resolution lapses if it is not passed within 48 days beginning with the circulation date.

The Trustees may empower such committee to resolve upon the operation of any bank account according to such mandate as it shall think fit provided that the signature of at least one Trustee shall be required for cheques above a certain amount as set out in the Bye-Laws and provided always that no committee shall incur expenditure on behalf of the Union except in accordance with a budget which has been approved by the Trustees.

A Trustees' meeting shall be called by at least seven clear days' notice unless either:

- 48.1 all the Trustees agree; or
- 48.2 urgent circumstances require shorter notice.

49. Contents of Notice

Every notice calling a Trustees' meeting shall specify:

- 49.1 the place, day and time of the meeting;
- 49.2 the general particulars of all business to be considered at such meeting; and
- 49.3 if it is anticipated that Trustees participating in the meeting will not be in the same place, how it is proposed that they should communicate with each other during the meeting.

50. Service of Notice

Notice of Trustees' meetings shall be given to each Trustee, but need not be in writing. Notice of Trustees' meeting may be sent by electronic means to an address provided by the Trustee for the purpose.

51. Participation in Trustees' meetings

- (a) the meeting has been called and takes place in accordance with the Articles; and
- (b) they can each communicate to the others any information or opinions they have on any particular item of the business of the meeting.

51.2 In determining whether Trustees are participating in a Trustees' meeting, it is irrelevant where any Trustee is or how they communicate with each other.

51.3 If all the Trustees participating in a meeting are not in the same place, they may decide that the meeting is to be treated as taking place wherever any of them is.

52. Quorum for Trustees' meetings

52.1 At a Trustees' meeting, unless a quorum is participating, no proposal is to be voted on, except a proposal to call another meeting.

52.2 The quorum for Trustees' meetings until and including the Effective Date shall be two. Thereafter, the quorum for Trustees' meetings may be fixed from time to time by a decision of the Trustees, but it must never be less than 50% of those in office and must include at least two Sabbatical Trustees, two Student Trustees and one External Trustee (Alumni, College or Professional). Where the resolution or issue under discussion concerns a matter in respect of which some or all of the Trustees have a Conflict of Interest, the quorum shall be four.

55.2.2 that Trustee has taken all reasonable steps to make all the other Trustees aware of the matter and the decision;

55.2.3 the Trustees have had a reasonable opportunity to communicate their views on the matter and the decision to each other; and

55.2.4 a two thirds majority of the Trustees vote in favour of a particular decision on that matter

a decision of the Trustees may be taken by a majority and shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been taken at a Trustees' meeting duly convened and held.

- 55.3 Trustees participating in the taking of a majority decision otherwise than at a Trustees' meeting in accordance with this Article:

55.3.1 may be in different places, and may participate at different times; and

55.3.2 may communicate with each other by any means.

- 55.4 No decision shall be taken by the Trustees in accordance with this Article unless a quorum participates in the decision-making process. The quorum for Trustees' decision-making in accordance with this Article shall be the same as the quorum for Trustees' meetings as set out in Article 52.
- 55.5 The Chair or such other Trustee as shall be appointed by the Trustees shall be the chair of the process of decision-making in accordance with this Article. The process shall include:

 - 55.5.4 the nominated person must prepare a minute of the decision in accordance with Article 62.
- 55.6 In the case of an equality of votes in any decision-making process in accordance with this Article, the Chair shall be entitled to a casting vote in addition to any other vote he or she may have but this does not apply if, in accordance with the Articles, the Chair or specified Trustee is not to be counted as participating in the decision-making process for quorum, voting or agreement purposes.

56. Conflicts of interest

- 56.1 Whenever a Trustee finds himself or herself in a situation that is reasonably likely to give rise to a Conflict of Interest, he or she must declare his or her interest to the Trustees unless, or except to the extent that, the other Trustees are or ought reasonably to be aware of it already.
- 56.2 Whenever a matter is to be discussed at a meeting or decided in accordance with Article 55 and a Trustee has a Conflict of Interest in respect of that matter then, subject to Article 57, he or she must:

 - 56.2.2 not be counted in the quorum for that part of the meeting or decision-making process; and
 - 56.2.3 withdraw during the vote and have no vote on the matter.
- 56.3 If any question arises as to whether a Trustee has a Conflict of Interest, the question shall be decided by a majority decision of the other Trustees.

56.4 When a Trustee has a Conflict of Interest which he or she has declared to the Trustees, he or she shall not be in breach of his or her duties to the Union by withholding confidential information from the Union if to disclose it would result in a breach of any other duty or obligation of confidence owed by him or her.

57. Trustees' power to authorise a conflict of interest

57.1 The Trustees may (subject to such terms as they may impose from time to time, and subject always to their right to vary or terminate such authorisation) authorise, to the fullest extent permitted by law:

57.1.1 any matter which would otherwise result in a Trustee infringing his or her duty to avoid a situation in which he or she has a Conflict of Interest; and

57.1.2 the manner in which a Conflict of Interest arising out of any Trustee's office, employment or position may be dealt with and, for the avoidance of doubt, they can decide that the Trustee with a Conflict of Interest can participate in a vote on the matter and can be counted in the quorum provided that when deciding to give such authorisation the provisions of Article 56 shall be complied with and provided that nothing in this Article shall have the effect of allowing the Trustees to authorise a benefit that is not permitted in accordance with the Articles.

57.2 If a matter, or office, employment or position, has been authorised by the Trustees in accordance with this Article then, even if he or she has been authorised to remain at the meeting by the other Trustees, the Trustee may absent himself or herself from meetings of the Trustees at which anything relating to that matter, or that office, employment or position, will or may be discussed.

57.3 A Trustee shall not be accountable to the Union for any benefit which he or she derives from any matter, or from any office, employment or position, which has been authorised by the Trustees in accordance with this Article (subject to any limits or conditions to which such approval was subject).

58. Register of Trustees' interests

The Trustees shall cause a register of Trustees' interests to be kept. A Trustee must declare the nature and extent of any interest, direct or indirect, which he or she has in a proposed transaction or arrangement with the Union or in any transaction or arrangement entered into by the Union which has not previously been declared.

The deliberations of any such committee shall be reported regularly to the Trustees and any resolution passed or decision taken by any such committee shall be reported promptly to Union Council. The responsibility for reporting lies with the chair of each standing committee in accordance with the requirements of the Bye-Laws.
- 59.6 Union Council may form forums in accordance with the Bye-Laws.
