Travel to the venue

We primarily train at two locations, Somers Town Community Sports Centre and Talacre Community Sports Centre. These two locations are easily accessible using all modes of transport. Click here for the Tfl Accessible Tube Map.

Rail/Underground/Overground

Somers Town Community Sports Centre

The nearest few underground stations around Somers Town Community Sports Centre are not wheelchair accessible. However, some ambulant disabled supporters/visitors may be able to use them.

- Mornington Crescent station (Northern Line) is the nearest tube station and is around a seven-minute walk from the facility.
- Euston station (Northern, Victoria Lines, London Overground and National Rail) would be the nearest main line station, with around an eight minutes' walk. The tube station supports step free access Westbound only (from street to platform), whereas the National Rail supports full step free access.

- King's Cross St Pancras station (Northern, Victoria, Piccadilly, Metropolitan, Hammersmith and City and Circle Lines and National Rail) would be an alternative main line station which is around a 14-minute walk from the centre. This station supports full step free access (from street to train).
- Euston Square station (Metropolitan, Hammersmith and City and Circle Lines) may also be an alternative travel route. It is around a 15-minute walk. It has step free access for only its westbound platform.

Talacre Community Sports Centre

Unfortunately, few of the underground or mainline railway stations around Talacre Community Centre are fully wheelchair accessible.

However, some ambulant disabled supporters/visitors may be able to use them.

- Kentish Town West station (London Overground) is the nearest overground station and is right outside the centre.
- Chalk farm station (Northern Line) is the nearest tube station and is around a nine-minute walk from the facility.

- Kentish Town station (Northern Line and National Rail) would be the nearest main line station which is a 10-minute walk from the centre. This station does not have step free access.
- Camden Town station (Northern Line) is a 14-minute walk away.
- Gospel Oak station (London Overground) is an alternative station with step free access. It is a 16-minute walk away from the facility.
- King's Cross St Pancras station (Northern, Victoria, Piccadilly, Metropolitan, Hammersmith and City and Circle Lines and National Rail) would be an alternative main line station with step free access (from street to train), which is around a 37-minute walk or a 15-minute drive from the centre. You may also consider taking buses 46 or 214 from this station to the facility.
