

BME Network Women's Representative

Who is the BME Network Women's Representative?

The BME Students' Network committee leads the Union in providing for the social lives and representational needs of BME students at UCL. As Women's Representative for the BME Network, you'll co-ordinate campaigns, events and policy on issues relevant to Women members of the BME Students' Network. You'll represent BME Women and liaise with the BME Rep from the Women's Network. As a member of the committee, you'll also have a say in the overall direction of the Network.

What will you do as BME Network Women's Representative?

With training and support from Union staff, you will:

- Represent the interests of your group on the Section Committee
- Run campaigns and social events relevant to your group
- Have a say in the running of the Network and make sure its events and activities are accessible and engaging for your group

Who can stand?

All students who self-define as BME and as a woman

What is involved?

- Minimum of 2 Section meetings per term
- Attendance at any relevant BME Network and Union events
