

What?

The LGBT+ Officer will represent the interests of self-defining lesbian, gay, bisexual and trans* (LGBT) students within the Union, and will be responsible for bringing any related matters or campaigns that are in the interests of the student community. This is a part-time role in which you would:

- Represent LGBT+ students on issues within the Union
- Convene the LGBT+ Students' Section
- Liaise on behalf of UCLU with the NUS LGBT Campaign
- Attend NUS LGBT Conferences
- Be an active member of Union Council and other committees

Why?

Being an officer is a valuable and rewarding experience. Students will elect you to lead and assist with collective action on campaigns in your remit and will come to you first with questions, ideas or issues relating to your position. Holding office in the Union gives you access to the huge resource of the Union to influence the future of UCL. In particular, this role will give you the opportunity to shape the experience of LGBT+ students at UCL.

Who can stand for this position?

All students who self-define as Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Trans* and/or any other gender/sexual minority including but not limited to Asexual spectrum, Queer, Intersex who are:
Undergraduates
Postgraduates
Mature students
International Students

Who can vote for this position?

UCL students who self-define as Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Trans* and/or any other gender/sexual minority including but not limited to Asexual spectrum, Queer, Intersex

How much time will it involve?

- Attend LGBT+ Students Section meetings
- Attend weekly Executive meetings
- 5 Council meetings per year
- A range of additional events each year
- NUS LGBT Conference

What support and resources will be available?

- Welfare and International Officer
- UCLU Staff

What skills and benefits will I gain?

Verbal & Written Communication
Decision Making
Teamwork
Committee Work
Time Management
Planning
Negotiation
Training Opportunities
Opportunity to Travel

How many are to be elected?

1