

School of Pharmacy Students' Officer

Who is the School of Pharmacy Students' Officer?

As School of Pharmacy Students' Officer, you will have a unique opportunity to lead and represent the community of students within the School of Pharmacy, making sure that the experience of studying pharmacy at UCL is engaging and rewarding. You will meet regularly with senior staff within the School and represent its students to organisations at national level to ensure that the voices of SoP students are heard widely and their needs addressed effectively. You will also create and run activities and events in order to build an engaged community of SoP students.

What will you do as School of Pharmacy Students' Officer?

In this role, you'll have the opportunity to make sure the School of Pharmacy provides an engaging, supportive and rewarding experience for its students. With training and support from Union staff, you will:

- Convene the School of Pharmacy Students' Section
- Chair the British Pharmaceutical Students' Association Intra-School Committee
- Meet regularly with the Director of the School of Pharmacy and other senior academic and represent the interests of School of Pharmacy students within the Union
- Run activities and events for School of Pharmacy students
- Represent UCL School of Pharmacy students to the Royal Pharmaceutical Society

Who can stand?

All students registered at the School of Pharmacy

What is involved?

You carry out this role alongside your studies for one academic year. It involves:

- Attendance at School of Pharmacy Students' Section meetings
  - 5 Council meetings
  - A range of additional events