

SSEES Officer

Who is the SSEES Officer?

As SSEES Students' Officer, you will have a unique opportunity to lead and represent the community of students within SSEES, making sure that the experience of studying within the School is engaging and rewarding and seeing that the academic, political and social needs of its students are met.

What will you do as SSEES Officer?

In this role, you'll have the opportunity to shape the social community and political presence of SSEES according to the voice of its students. With training and support from Union staff, you will:

- Represent the interests of SSEES students within the Union
- Convene the SSEES Students' Section
- Meet regularly with the Director of SSEES along with other senior academics
- Develop the SSEES community by creating and running events for SSEES students as well as for the wider UCL population
- Facilitate the relationship between SSEES students and alumni

Who can stand?

All students registered at SSEES

What is involved?

You carry out this role alongside your studies for one academic year. It involves:

- Attendance at SSEES section meetings
 - 5 Council meetings
- A range of additional events
