

Trans Officer

Your Role

You will lead the Union's LGBT+ Network alongside the LGBQ+ Officer in continuing to build an engaging, dynamic and rewarding community of LGBT+ students on campus and make sure that the Network caters to and represents all of its members. You will have the opportunity to create and run campaigns on issues affecting Trans students and work alongside existing campaigns and organisations at national level, and will have oversight on the social events and activities organised by the Network.

Your Responsibility

- Develop a community of Trans students within the Union by spearheading and supporting events and creating opportunities for your peers and co-convening the LGBT+ Student Network
- Represent the voice of Trans students in Students' Union decision making
- Work with the Sabbatical Officers to ensure that issues affecting Trans students are represented effectively in UCL decision making
- Represent the Union at the NUS Trans Students' Conference
- Be an active member of Union Executive

Your Eligibility

All students who self-define as trans.

Time Required For Role

This is a part-time, unpaid position. You are expected to attend Union Executive and a range of additional events, approx. 10-15 hours per term. This role allows job shares.
