Amendments to the UCLU Byelaws- Governance Wars:
Return of the Byelaws

Proposer:	James Skuse
Seconder:	Ben Towse
Passed:	Union Council, 28 February 2012

Section 1 – General

Delete:

7. UCLU may affiliate to external organisations that assist it in providing services, provided that such affiliations do not violate the Memorandum and Articles of UCLU. UCLU shall not affiliate to any religious, political or other organisations other than the National Union of Students (NUS) and University of London Union (ULU). A list of 3 affiliations shall be posted on the website and approved annually. Members may request a ballot on continued affiliation, which shall be held in line with referenda.

Add:

7. UCLU may affiliate to any external organisation provided that such affiliations do not violate relevant law or the Memorandum and Articles or Bye-Laws of UCLU. All affiliations shall be posted on the website and approved at the Annual Members Meeting.

8. Any new affiliation to, or disaffiliation from, a political or other sectarian organisation shall require a majority vote on a motion put to a Members' Meeting or Referendum. Affiliations shall continue indefinitely in the absence of a successful motion to disaffiliate.
