

Women's Network Publicity Officer

The Women's Network committee leads the Union in providing for the social lives and representational needs of Women students at UCL. As Publicity Officer, you'll be responsible for producing and leading the distribution of posters, leaflets and flyers as well as the Network's online platforms with the support of Union Staff. You'll work with the Secretary and Women's Officer in order to publicise forums via a variety of media. As a member of the committee, you'll also have a say in the overall direction of the Network.

What will you do as Women's Network Publicity Officer?

With training and support from Union staff, you will:

- Facilitate communication between the forum and all students.
- With the support of Union staff where appropriate, you'll be in charge of the Women's Network's email bulletin, social media presence and the website

Who can stand?

All students who self-define as a woman

What is involved?

- Minimum of 2 Section meetings per term
- Attendance at any relevant Women's Network and Union events
