

Amendment to Governing Document AGD1204
Changing the Elections Guidance Document in One Reading

Proposer:	Sam Gaus
Seconder:	Edwin Clifford-Coupe
Passed:	Union Council, 28 May 2013

This Union Notes:

1. That the Bye-Laws themselves can be changed in only one reading.
2. That the Bye-Laws and Guidance Documents are in equal stead.
3. That anything written into a Guidance Document could be written into the Bye-Laws to the same effect.
4. That the Elections Guidance document requires two readings.

This Union Believes:

1. That this is a bit silly.

This Union Resolves:

1. To amend Bye-Laws section 9.31 from:

The Guidance Document on Elections may be changed by a 75% majority vote at two quorate meetings of Union Council.

to:

The Guidance Document on Elections may be changed by a 75% majority vote at one quorate meeting of Union Council.

Thanks, much love.
