

TOM ROBINSON

#1 for LGBT+ Officer

I've enjoyed this year so much, I'd like to do it again. 3rd year Mathematics with Modern Languages student. Likes LGBT+ representation, talking about dynamics within LGBT+ communities, working with other liberation campaigns, and dogs.

Experience:

- UCLU LGBT+ Officer 2013-2014
- UCLU LGBT+ Committee 2011-2013
- UCLU Disabled Students' Officer 2012-2013
- UCLU Council member 2012-2014
- NUS LGBT Conference delegate, 2012 & 2013

Vote Tom for...

- A continuation of this year's programme: socials both with and without alcohol, film nights, curiosity talks, debates, and meets for subsets of the LGBT+ community.
- More events relating to identities and experiences that intersect with being LGBT+, including women, BME, disabled and international students and students of faith.
- A weekly confidential drop-in surgery for any LGBT+ UCL student.
- A campaign to improve LGBT+ accessibility of Bloomsbury Fitness, the UCLU gym.
- Work with other officers on improving the UCL Welcome Fortnight programme, with events aimed at students in liberation groups and alternatives to club nights.
- More opportunities to engage with the forum remotely, for example via online voting for committee positions.
- An officer blog with an account of how time has been spent.
